Hi George and everyone,

If you use your EPA LAN id and password, you can see this page:

Is this the framework for tonight's updates? This is what Jeff and Danny prepared earlier.

Thanks!

Enesta,

As of right now, we believe that we will have another set of data to post tonight and will need a press release announcing it. We do need your help. We don't have the language, yet. Please stay tuned. - George

We are expecting to need to turn around more spill data tonight. Like last night, we will need to get EOC/OSWER sign off; get the data and accompanying explanatory information posted; and Release out to the Media.

Tim, Can you confirm that you will be able to post.

Julia, Enesta, and Robert, I'm going to need the help of one of you to distribute through Vocus. If we could give Julia break tonight, that would be my preference. Please let me know. Thanks, George
